OUTREACH TO COMMUNITY

Chinese Mutual Aid Association | 1014 W. Argyle St., Chicago, IL 60640 | August 6th, 2022

Race Day Audience

Approximately 2,000 runners, volunteers and spectators will see your brand on the day of the race along historic Asia on Argyle and near the Lakefront.

Local elected officials such as the Alderman, State Senator and State Representative attend to give runners a welcome.

After the conclusion of the race, runners and attendees will enjoy a block party which provides yet another opportunity for your brand to engage with the community by distributing product samples and providing interactive experiences.

Pre-Event Outreach

CMAA sends e-blasts to its mailing list which consists of 10,000 unique emails in the months leading up to the race.

CMAA leverages joint marketing via social media, email and print with partners including the Chicago Area Runners Association, Uptown United/ Uptown Chamber of Commerce, Chicago Asian Network and 17 ethnic language media outlets.

Agency Impact

Annually, CMAA, which produces the annual Dim Sum & Then Some Race, serves 5,000 clients each year.

The heritage of CMAA clients span over 40 countries, and the agency is led by prominent leaders Asian American, Pacific Islanders in Chicagoland representing business, government and nonprofit interests.
